

Jewish Genealogy in Howard County

Join us for our first Meeting in Howard County

If you are interested in genealogy – THIS IS THE GROUP FOR YOU!

If you are interested in Jewish genealogy - THEN YOU CAN NOT MISS A MEETING!

Together, we will explore how to get started, resources, DNA & Genealogy, software and so much more.....

Tuesday, June 27, 2017

2:00 pm at Vantage House*

Speaker: Marlene Bishow,

Past-President, The Jewish Genealogy Society of Greater Washington

“Jewish Genealogy in Howard County: Beginning & Going Forward”

Monday, July 24, 2017

2:00 pm at Vantage House*

Speaker: Barry Nove,

Author, “The Ellis Island Experience: A Sampling of Stories and How to Research Your Own”

Copies will be for sale at the lecture

“The Ellis Island Experience”

Monday, August 28, 2017

2:00 pm at Vantage House*

Speaker: Megan Lewis, (A Columbia native)

Reference Librarian, National Institute for Holocaust Documentation

United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

Saturday, September 9, 2017

8:00 pm at Vantage House*

Speaker: Dr. Janette Silverman,
Senior Genealogist at AncestryProGenealogists

“Beginning Your Research Using Ancestry.com”

Tuesday, November 7, 2017

2:00 pm at Vantage House

Speaker: Carol Kostakos Petranek
Co-Director of the Washington, D.C. Family History Center

“Researching for FREE on FamilySearch.com”

Tell your friends, congregants, neighbors

SPONSORED BY

The Jewish Genealogy Society of Greater Washington, Inc.

And

Vantage House
5400 Vantage Point Road
Columbia, MD

All are welcome. No admission charge.

For Additional Information

JGSGWHc@comcast.net